DAILY TRIBUNE.

Wednesday Morning March 31, 1858.

CITY ITEMS.

The Senate's Return.
We publish this morning the confession of George H. Lewis, of Mendota, Ill., who gave up to St. Louis, on charge of killing his wife. It is sufficiently terrible to move the most apathetic reader to indignation; but there is an air of improbability about the story which excites suspicion that the villain is not telling the truth. We hope, for the sakes of human kind, that the man is mad, and know what he says.

Cheating from the best of War.
We publish from Washington, that nearly two Anti-Leavenworth Democrats in Congress, and the whole Republican force of sixty-two votes, have agreed to accept Mr. Garrison's amendment, the Leavenworth Bill, that would have been voted down if it had been introduced at the very moment when the trial of the slaves was being tried.

Prayer-Cracker Club.
—Members of the above Club met to attend the annual meeting at the room of the Andover Club, No. 52 Dearborn street, on Friday, April 2d, at 4 o'clock, p.m. General attendance is requested.

Penit. L. Park, Secretary.

Saxon Avenue.—We learn from the family of Dr. Foster, residing at No. 390 Madison street, was terribly burned by her clothes taking fire from the explosion of a lamp. Dr. Foster and his wife were also severely burned extinguishing the flames. The girl will probably recover.

Lake Navigation Company.—Attention is called to the advertisement of the sale of this company's assets. We have heretofore, in the commercial papers, spoken of the excellent opportunity this sale affords to investors in good property, and it will be perceived, the terms are very favorable, and the fact enhances a general sense of excellent value.

Prussia Forum.—At the Board of Trade yesterday, samples of various cloths were shown by Sawyer, Miles & Co., of New York, who have just established themselves in this part of the world, and who have, however, been here but a few weeks. They were from Prussia's prime XXX cloths, extra & O'Fallon's St. Louis, celebrated everywhere. Sawyer, Miles & Co., are experienced flour merchants, and are engaged in bringing consignments of such article to supply families in Chicago.

Electoral Newsman, West.—The Electoral Magazine for April can be found in McMillan & Colvill's store (opposite old stage). This number contains splendid copper-plate portraits of the Prince Royal and Prince Frederick William of Prussia, which put all news periodicals in the shade.

W. H. Davis.—We learn from the Daily Journal of Boston, that W. H. Davis, a member of the Senate, has been elected to the office of Postmaster of Boston, and will be installed in that office on the 1st of May.
